WHAT PRICE NRA?

One year ago at the very worst of the depression and before the government began slaughtering millions of sows about to farrow and throwing them into the Mississippi, hogs were slling at FIVE CENTS A POUND. Today the price is 3 3-4 cents per pound or a cent and a quarter less. Cattle are the lowest price they have been in forty-six years, a prominent farmer informs us and everything the farmer purchases is getting higher every day. Eggs are the cheapest for many a year with feed prices being forced higher and higher. The canneries are getting $10 more per ton for fish meal than they were a year ago and it costs TWELVE DOLLARS MORE to produce it. Canned fish is selling at 25 cents a case more than a year ago and it now costs 30 cents more to pack it, according to one of the cannery owners.

All of this in spite of the government spending SEVEN BILLIONS to bolster up various crack-brained schemes and meddling enterprises which leads to the sensible query, "What Price NRA?" Eventually the people must pay all bills, including the SEVEN BILLIONS and it is not going to be long until they demand the right to operate their own affairs in the way best suited to each individual.

SUNSET SCHOOL PROVES ITS WORTH

The program and display at Sunset School Tuesday evening, in observance of School Week, was all that anyone should need to see to be convinced that our school is justly deserving of its reputation as one of the finest grade schools in the state.

The work of the pupils from the kindergarten to the eighth grade was displayed in the various rooms and it was astonishing to observe the progress step by step through each grade. It was interesting not only from a purely artistic standpoint but from an educational one as well. It is evident that the pupils are taught to think and to develop their individualism, and that is exceptional for the program of education at Sunset is so comprehensive and sympathetic that it is going to enable the fortunate pupils of the school to find themselves and their particular place in life much more easily than did the antiquated systems.

MISTRESS FORGOT ACT BUT ZIP REMEMBERED

When his mistress forgot the very last act of his skit at the pet show Saturday afternoon at the Monterey grammar school, Zip, the intelligent dog belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Ed Warner, looked disgusted and proceeded to put it on all by himself. His trainer was supposed to say, "Roll over, over, over." But Mrs. Warner forgot the command. Zip, however, didn't forget.

Zip danced the cakewalk, sat up and played soldier, saluted the flag, saluted the audience, then when Mrs. Warner asked him if he had had enough to eat he shook his head "No." She told him to get his pan and bring it for more, which he did.

A special act for the occasion had been planned by Harry Warrington with Zip, but since Harry was unable to attend the show, Mrs. Warner put the dog through a few of his many tricks.

Carmel people hope to have a chance soon to see Zip and Harry in their program.

OLD TIME RHERE RECALLS HOTEST AND COLDEST

Comment on the warm weather Tuesday to Harry Laurette brought out the fact that since Mr. Laurette had lived here, from 1906 to the present time, the hottest he had seen it was 105 and the coldest was once when it froze the eucalyptus trees. Mr. Laurette said that during the hot spell he and his wife went to the beach to escape the heat and the water seemed like ice water in comparison.

James H. Thoburn

Thoburn, newly elected mayor, conducted his first council meeting last week.

SUITS TO BE HEARD IN SALINAS SOON

Attorney Carmel Martin of Monterey will take the case of Carmel property owners into court in Salinas next week and demand a quitclaim deed from the Carmel Development company. He will also bring suit against the tenants here who are selling liquor in violation of deed restrictions.

Since the supreme court in nine instances has upheld the liquor restrictions in deeds, the owners have little hope of winning the first suit.

With the losing of the suit against the Development company, the case against the lessees will be strengthened.

Carmel people await with interest the outcome of both cases.

Mrs. George Romine has been removed from the hospital to her home, under condition that no visitors be allowed. Her aunt Mrs. Ardie Happ of San Francisco has come to be with her.

J. A. Burge

Burge, nurseryman, is the new commissioner of streets.

"Just what are these tiny plants?" we asked J. A. Burge at his nursery Tuesday afternoon. We were looking at little feathery plants about four inches high set in very small flower pots.

"Those are cypress trees," said Mr. Burge, and it took a lot of adjustment on our parts to span the bridge between those little sprigs of green to the sturdy cypresses so abundant on this section of the coast.

Planted eight or nine months ago, they have now attained the height of three to four inches. Within one year they will be about eighteen inches high, Mr. Burge said, and so on at that rate until they are full grown. When set where the coast wind sweeps over them, they form in grotesque shapes, but protected, they stand straight and tall.

Wild rhododendrons caught our eyes. But they appeared to be full grown now as they must be ten to twelve feet high, but Mr. Burge, however, says they will be much higher.

They have a dainty pink blossom which is a delight to the senses.

BODY OF MAN FOUND ON BEACH SUNDAY

The body of a man was found on the beach Sunday by employes of the Del Monte company near Del Monte Lodge and was identified Tuesday by Mrs. James Kellogg Stinson of San Francisco as her husband.

Stinson, who was purchasing agent for a hotel in the city, disappeared on Tuesday of last week. His identity was established through laundry marks on his clothes.

It is believed that his death was caused by his having lost his footing and being swept into the ocean. His widow stated that it was his habit to walk on the beach for recreation.

PUBLICITY MAN FOR PAGEANT WAS HERE

Fred V. Williams, director of Public Relations for the Bishop of Monterey, Fresno Catholic Diocese, and Director of Publicity for the Serra Pagent here in August, was at the Hotel La Playa with Mrs. Williams this week conferring with Don L. Staniford, chairman of the citizens committee, Geo. Marion, writer of the Serra Play, Father Michael D. O'Connell, Pastor of Old Mission on plans for the event.

A San Francisco committee named by Archbishop Edward J. Hanna, and headed by Richard M. Tobin, is assisting the Carmel Committee in plans for the event.

ROLPH ASKS TRUSTEES TO STAY IN OFFICE

The following letters are explanatory in themselves:

Honorable C. W. Whitney and to Each and Every one,
Carmel, Calif.

Dear Sirs:

The matter of your resignation as members of the Carmel Sanitary Board has been discussed with the Hon. James Rolph, Jr., Governor, and he has instructed me to inform you that he feels that you should be given an opportunity to reconsider this resignation and, if possible, to withdraw it.

The Governor has also received a copy of the opinion of your attorney, Mr. Argyll Campbell, dated March 17th, 1934, in which he points out that it is a mere inadvertence in the law which requires the Governor to act in case the resignations are accepted. The Governor feels, however, that the matter is purely a local affair, that the qualifications of each member of the board have been passed upon by the electors of the Carmel Sanitary District in the recent election and that the confidence placed by the electors in the members of the Board is fully justified.

On behalf of the Governor, therefore, I am writing to you asking that you inform the Governor as to your reason for resigning, and conveying to you, at his request, his wish that you reconsider your resignation and, if consistent withdraw it. The Governor has been informed that you are held in high esteem in your district, and he sincerely hopes that you will find it possible to rescind the resignation.

In the meantime, it is assumed that the provisions of Section 879 of the Political Code are applicable, which section reads as follows:

"Every officer must continue to discharge the duties of his office although his term has expired, until a successor is qualified."

So far as this office is concerned, therefore, the attitude is taken that for the present you are to continue as members of the Sanitary Board of Carmel Sanitary District, and that you will take under consideration the matter of withdrawing your resignation and inform the Governor as to your decision.

With the Governor's compliments and every good wish,

Very sincerely yours,
William A. Smith,
Private secretary.

Hon. James Rolph, Jr.,
Governor State of California,
Sacramento, Calif.

Dear Governor Rolph:

In answer to your favor of the 17th instant, the undersigned, the trustees of the Carmel Sanitary District, individually and collectively submit the following reply:

In paragraph three of your communication, you ask us for the reason for our resignations. This is as follows:

On or about the 20th of December, 1933, the trustees of the Carmel Sanitary District, after careful study of the problem, completed plans and specifications for a modern sewage disposal plant for the District. The project was submitted to your State Board of Health, and approved by the State Board of Sanitary Engineers. The voters of the District were given ample time and opportunity to inform themselves of all the facts, and it was well understood that application had been made for government aid. It is true that some haste was necessary for

SPECTATORS AMAZED AT SUNSET PUPILS' WORK

Again Sunset School scored a triumph when it presented to the public Tuesday night a program of such merit that all who saw were amazed.

From tiniest tots to eighth graders there was not one error to mar the numbers.

Miss Madeline Currey directed a youthful "Monterey Peninsula Orchestra," and "Fenton Foster Chorus," which showed great talent and training. Those of the audience who received training in earlier days when such things as are taught at Sunset were not available, could not help but envy the students and congratulate them on their good fortune.

Charles A. Watson made a short talk for the Masonic lodge which sponsors public school week, and Principal O. W. Bardarson welcomed the parents and friends and invited them to visit the class rooms after the program.

In appreciation for the work of Miss Clara Kellogg who served on the board of trustees for eight years, a proud youngster announced that the program was dedicated to her.

The work of Mrs. Frances Johnson's classes in verse choir was of such rhythm and harmonious expression the listener might close his eyes and fancy one person doing the speaking. Three selections were given, all of excellent merit.

The tumblers gave an interesting number which was highly appreciated.

After the program, the guests visited the rooms where the work of the students was on display. One of the most striking things was the improvement shown. From the crude drawings of the first grade to the finished production of the sixth, seventh and eighth grade pupils, there was no wide gap but a steady improvement showing development of the child's mind and talents.

In one room guests were able to ocompare work started in the fall with present eforts of the same student. Advancement shown was remarkable.

Art work, shop work, literary efforts, spelling, history and sundry other branches were displayed and admired. The Sun editors are sorry that each student cannot be named and his work designated.

To the teachers and pupils, all, congratulations for a fine program well done, showing a year's work which will be of value in the future lives of the students.

Mrs. Bess Shaver left Sunday after a pleasant visit at the home of her cousin, Mrs. Ora Minges. She went to Palo Alto and will be joined there by her husband, after which they will return to their home in Seattle.

Bernard Rowntree

Rowntree, new city councilman, was appointed commissioner of lights and water.

KNIGHTS COLUMBUS AT OLD MISSION SUNDAY

Hundreds of Knights of Columbus of Northern and Central California will gather at Carmel Mission next Sunday to attend the exemplification of the Third Degree of their Order by Frank J. Barry, head of the order in California.

The program of the day will begin with the celebration of a Mass by Father Michael D. O'Connell, Pastor of Mission Carmel, at 10 o'clock in the morning. The Second Degree of the Order will be given at eleven o'clock. At 12:00 a Barbecue for the Knights and their ladies will be held in the Mission Gardens.

The Third Degree will take place at 2 p. m. Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament will close the ceremonies of the day. The program will be held under the auspices of the Salinas Council of the Knights of Columbus.

W. A. Phillips, District Deputy of the Knights, is in charge of arrangements. The event, which it is planned, will become traditional with Carmel as its focal point, will bring some of the most prominent Knights of Columbus of the State here, the Knights meeting at the tomb of Serra for their annual initiation. There will be sixty candidates.

CARMEL MISSION LADIES WILL GIVE HOPE CHEST

Plans are being made by the ladies of Carmel Mission Parish for a Hope Chest to be given away during the Serra Pageant for the benefit of the Old Mission. The Hope Chest will be placed on display in one of the downtown store windows. It is said The Hope Chest will be the most valuable of its kind to be given away here in many years containing linens, jewelry, novelties and other useful and ornamental articles.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Brown have returned to their home in Vancouver after spending two weeks in Sunset cottage. Mr. Brown is general manager for the Union Steamship company of British Columbia.

TICKETS SELLING FAST FOR FILIPINO CONCERT

The Denny-Watrous gallery reports the house already two-thirds sold for the Filipino concert of Saturday night. Those who wish to hear this program will do well not to delay in making reservations.

Owing to the fact that the majority of the local Filipinos will not be released from work until a late hour, the program will not begin until 8:45.

One interesting phase of the evening is the fact that the performers' friends and relatives in the Philippines will know where the company is on that night, since Col. Clair Foster has sent the news to the papers there by his radio from his Carmel station.

The Philippines musical instruments, octabina, banduria, and la-ud, with the violin and guitar, will be heard Saturday evening, as well as vocal selections by Rosita Lamont, Filipino film star who achieved fame in "Rose of Manila," and as a radio singer.

Aspre and his Manila String orchestra will give several selections, and there will be violin and vocal solos. Gladys Steele of KLX will be the pianist.

Aspre is the foremost of Filipino violinists and composers. He came to California in 1916 and since then has spent his time in Hollywood, playing in vaudeville and over the radio.

Saturday evening's performance is sponsored by Rev. Willis G. White, Peter Pan Lodge and the Denny-Watrous gallery.

JOYCE WHITCOMB HAS BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION

Miss Joyce's guests were: Roe Marie Mattimore, Marguerite Anderson, Jane Millis, Kathryn Ham, Sue Chapman, Jean and Charlotte May and Norris Thompson.

Mrs. Ivan Kelsey spent Sunday with friends in Sunnyvale.

64-YEAR-OLD PAPER FOUND AT MISSION

While Harry Downie was repairing the large crucifix above the altar at the Old Mission, he found stuffed into one of the arms part of a copy of the Castroville Argus, published in 1870 by John L. Griffiths.

An offer was made in that issue to give a lot there to any one who would agree to build a good comfortable dwelling on it. While no time limit was set, they stated they expected the house to be built as soon as possibl as an evidence of good faith.

The paper was singularly white, such as is seldom seen now, if ever, and had not yellowed with age.

If when 100 feet from an intersection, you are unable to see 200 feet around the corner, this is a blind corner, according to the definition. This fact was brought out in Judge Wood's office Tuesday morning when Carmel streets were being discussed.

Mrs Ida M. Myers and Mrs. Hanke of San Luis Obispo were in Carmel this week. Mrs. Myers owns a home on San Antonio.

STATE GAS TAX MONEY BEING PUT ON ROADS

Street Commissioner J. A. Burge reports that Carmel has received $2500 of the $2800 due from the state on gas tax money and that it is being put to work.

Santa Lucia is the first street to be repaired, decomposed gravel being used in the ruts and holes, this to be smoothed down and covered with a heavy oil.

Work is planned from Carpenter and Second to San Carlos and Fourth, the old truck route.

One hundred yards on Del Monte avenue is also on the list, where it is proposed to eliminate a sharp turn and blind corner.

The law stipulates that this money may be used only on roads directly tributary to through highways.

Mr. Burge reports that the city was able to get 250 yards of decomposed gravel free of charge for the hauling.

ORCHESTRA NUMBERS WILL BE REPEATED

Those who attend the student body meeting at Sunset Friday morning will have the opportunity of hearing two of the orchestral selections with vocal ensemble of Tuesday night repeated.

"Finlandia" and "America" will again be directed by Miss Currey at that time.

AT LAST . . . you'll say, here is the kitchen equipment I have always longed for.

A range that is so colorful and clean-looking—a range that is so quiet and quick in operation—that is what you'll find in the modern fully automatic electric range. And when summer days grow hot this modern electric range with the insulated oven will not heat up the kitchen. That is one feature every woman should welcome.

And for hot water? Certainly you have plenty of it from an automatic storage type electric water heater. No more lifting, filling, heating, pouring with a tea kettle. Just turn a faucet and have hot water in abundance for every household need.

Why wait any longer? You can have both electric range and water heater installed on easy purchase terms. On the new low rate they are most economical to operate.

AMAZING FACTS

The magical power of salt is frequently commented upon in the literature of ancient civilizations and some authorities think this throws light on the quaint saying: "To catch a bird you must throw salt on his tail". The more generally accepted explanation, however, is that to catch a bird one must get near enough to touch it.

In the folk lore of some nations the practice has developed of never moving from one house to another or marrying, without an exchange of salt.

COMMUNITY PLAYERS PLAN COMING SEASON

Gordon Davis, coming to the peninsula with a long string of successes at Stanford to his credit, will direct the next production of the Carmel Community Players to be presented in the Denny-Watrous Gallery for four performances May 30 and 31, June 1 and 2.

Davis, who played leads in Carmel amateur drama a dozen or more years ago and who has subsequently won success as a professional actor and a director of both professional and amateur performances, was present last night at the annual meeting of the Community Players membership and discussed the general policies of the production, as well as concerning those to follow.

Choice of the play to be staged next month will be announced in the next few days. Several possible dramas are under consideration and the final selection will be made with a view to giving the audience the maximum entertainment within the scope of the organization's facilities.

The players, it was announced last night have severed all connection with the Community Playhouse, their lease arrangement with Edward Kuster, playhouse owner, having expired. Kuster it was stated has announced plans to operate the playhouse as a private venture in the future.

Beyond the next month's gallery production the players' plans are indefinite although it was indicated that one or two plays may be staged at the Forest theater next summer.

Fewer and better plays will be the objective in future it was agreed, with a probability that productions will average not more than six during any year.

It was especially emphasized that opportunity to take an active part in the work of the organization is open to everyone, whether as actor, scene painter or in some other capacity. More than 200 people have appeared in players productions during the past two years it was pointed out.

Membership in the players is also open to anyone. Cost of membership is $10 a year and it is hoped that the organization's roster will include the names of people from all parts of the peninsula.

Davis stressed the importance of little theatre activities as a vital element in the struggle to keep the spoken drama from total extinction. But, he warned, it is useless to rely upon exploitation for success of any theatre, either amateur or commercial unless the ballyhoo is backed up with finished productions. To do this, he declared it is essential that capable directors be engaged.

On this basis, Davis predicted the Carmel Community Players should become one of the outstanding amateur dramatic groups in the country.

Martin Flavin, playwright who has just returned from a two years' stay abroad spoke briefly on the necessity for adequate stage facilities if plays are to be successfully reproduced, and endorsed what Davis had said regarding the importance of good direction.

Members of a new board of directors, nominated and unanimously elected last night, are: Mrs. Paula Dougherty, Mrs. Sidney Fish, Mrs. Forest Nicol, Adolphe Hanke, Lloyd Tevis, Byington Ford, Major Chester Shepherd, E. A. H. Watson, Lloyd Weer, Harold Mack, Dr. D. T. McDougall, S. A. Trevvett, Charles Van Riper and J. L. Cockburn. From this group will be chosen the new officers. Mrs. Fish has served as president for the past two years.

A treasurer's report showing substantial improvement in the organization's financial condition as a result of last season's successful series of productions was presented by Adolphe Hanke.—From Monterey Herald.

CCHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believed in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: and whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die." These words from the Gospel of John comprise the Golden Text to be used Sunday in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass.

The subject of the Lesson-Sermon will be "Probation after Death." Included among the Scriptural selections will be: "For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens" (II Cor. 5: 1).

The following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, will also be included: "No final judgment awaits mortals for the judgment-day of wisdom comes hourly and continually, even the judgment by which mortal man is divested of all material error" (p 291).

Mrs. Bertha Hopkins of the Jasmine Bush is visiting her daughter, Mrs. John Boardman in Lindsey and is expected to return to Carmel next week.

Mrs. Marie Stuhr and daughter, Betty, of Omaha, are in Postscript for an indefinite stay.

THE GOLDEN BOUGH IN SAN FRANCISCO

Each year for several successive seasons Edward Kuster has taken his Golden Bough Players to San Francisco. Challenging comparison with similar groups in the Bay region, these players have never failed to win high praise from press and public.

This spring the Golden Bough offering in San Francisco will be Sudermann's "Fritzchen," a short drama laid in Germany in the '50's" and Maurice Browne's "The Mother of Gregory," a ballad-play laid in Scotland's long ago.

Interesting casts are enacting these plays. The following is the line-up for "Fritzchen," Charlotte Lawrence, Charles Killian, Edw. Kuster, Norbert Farrell, Betty Myers, Evert Sholund.

"The Mother of Gregory," will be played by the following: Georgia Wapple, Edw. Kuster, Evert Sholund, Betty Myers.

The above players come from widely scattered localities. Georgia Wapple lives in Hollister, Betty Meyers and Norbert Farrell in San Francisco, Evert Sholund in Monterey, Charles Kilian in Berkeley and Charlotte Lawrence and the producer in Carmel.

These plays will probably be presented in Carmel later in the spring.

putting our project in line for this hoped-for assistance. At a mass meeting, fully advertised, and called for the purpose of presenting and discussing the details, there were present about sixty citizens, the District engineer, the State Sanitary engineer, and the County health officer. No criticism of the proposed plan, constructive or otherwise, developed at this meeting.

A bond election had been called for the 9th of April; at the same time three of the five trustees were up for reelection. Th bonds were defeated two to one, while the trustees were all reelcted.

About one week before the election a very active opposition to our proposed project developed. Investigating this, we found that it was largely based upon a conviction that raw sewage could with great saving be discharged directly into the waters of Carmel Bay. We immediately took this up with the State Board of Sanitary Engineers, and found confirmation of what we already knew: that the State Sanitary Board of Engineers would not recommend, but on the contrary would oppose the issuance of a permit for the discharge of raw sewage into Carmel Bay.

We then took pains to inform the opposition and the people generally, of the facts regarding this method of sewage disposal and hoped to satisfy them, at the same time taking the position that we were open to receive any other plans or suggestions. None were presented to us; on the contrary, there developed through the activities of the opposition a statement that the State Board of Health was merely a political body appointed by the Governor, and that for political reasons they would not dare stir up trouble by refusing a permit for the disposal of sewage into Carmel Bay; that the State Board of Sanitary Engineers, by their approval of our project, were in league with our District engineer simply for the reason that here was something to sell to the people, etc., etc., ad lib.

To clear the atmosphere and make it plain to everyone concerned, (namely, the voters and taxpayers of the District, the State Board of Sanitary Engineers, the State Board of Health, and the Governor), we believed it advisable to call this bluff, thus bringing before the people of the District that we as trustees of the public interest were dealing with concrete conditions and not with political uncertainties, thus making the people "sewer-conscious."

Therefore our joint resignation. We are ready to comply with your suggestion to withdraw our resignations with the understanding that we will in the near future submit to the State Board of Sanitary Engineers any and all projects for the sewage disposal of this District, which may be presented in response to our request for the same; that this Board will at all times act in accord with and under the advice and direction of the State Board of Sanitary Engineers and the State Board of Health. We believe and are committed to the proposition that the sewage disposal problem of this district is vital and immediate and we propose to act accordingtly, by voluntary consent of the people if possible or by the application of such State laws as are provided for such a situation if necessary, but always with the consent and under the authority of the State Board of Health.

With the above understanding and with many thanks for your consideration, we, the undersigned trustees of the Carmel Sanitary District, individually and collectively, withdraw our resignations as filed with the Secretary of State and addressed to Your Honor, which resignations were to take place as of the 30th day of April, 1934, at midnight.

With sincere expressions of our esteem, we remain,

Respectfully yours,
Trustees of Carmel Sanitary District.
